

Internships Florida, USA

Mission	Provider of agricultural engineering, water management, and water quality services. SDS specializes in hydrological monitoring equipment, BMP research, data collection, and results analysis.	Essentials: What are the program requirements? We do not require you to be an experienced employee. What we do require is that you possess a strong wish to learn new things related to your future career as well as some skills beyond your professional focus. Do I necessarily need visa to participate in your program? Yes, if you are a non-US student. However, please keep in mind that you might also get interested in coming on Visa Waiver Program. For the details on this visa free traveling, please refer to the following web page http://travel.state.gov
Position Title	B3. Telemetry and Database Systems Development
Location	LaBelle, Florida, USA
Position Description	Southern DataStream maintains an extensive network of remote field data collection stations in south Florida. Data from these stations are currently collected by technicians who visit these sites on a weekly or monthly basis. The internship involves developing low-cost telemetry systems using off-the-shelf device technologies (spread-spectrum, cellular, etc.). Data collected from these sites are also to be integrated with the project management web sites to facilitate access by research partners and clients.
	Intern will study: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> previous interns' resources documenting telemetry and databases systems including hardware, software, telecommunication service provides; water sampler hardware to understand the instruments feeding the telemetry system; manuals and online resources describing software environments to be used in telemetry and databases project: PC 208W; Delphi FTP application; PHP; MySQL; Apache; Campbell Scientific DataLogger

	Should you wish to learn more about this position, please see the details at http://www.southerndatastream.com/b3.htm
Position Benefits	Housing, local transportation and all necessary utilities
Qualifications	Computer Science and Engineering students
Application Requirements	Apply on-line at http://www.intellitemps.net/db/Application.php3 OR send CV/Resume to: internships@intelligentsia-international.org . For the details please see at www.southerndatastream.com
Contact Person	Elmira Khabibullina (Ms)
Start/End Date	The program runs all year round	