

Internship Florida, USA

Have you ever thought about:

- Get to know the American culture, traditions, hospitality, and the social values of the American society, to meet people, to know different personalities as well as what is specific for the true American life style?
- Share your theoretical and practical experience and learn more about what is typically for the HR American systems?
- Getting qualification which would be a solid foundation for building your future, boosting your career and prospects for a higher salary?

Southern DataStream

...is a small progressive company offering a variety of training positions for qualified young American and International students and professionals who seeks for gaining valuable working experience.

Southern DataStream

... is located in beautiful area of south Florida. Since 1999, it has hosted over 190 participants from over 50 nations. You will take part in an office activity, laboratory and field trips.

Also participate in workshops and training classes, tours, recreational activities. ON-LINE APPLICATION FORM IS AVAILABLE AT <http://www.intellitemps.net/db/Application.php3>.